Mike Loppnow as he begins immunotherapy to battle his cancer.

Amy Peterson as she recovers from a recent procedure.

Dick Dorn's brother, Dennis, who started a second round of chemotherapy for liver cancer.

Vicki Riley for her son, Daren, who is recovering after a fall.

Thought For The Week:

This weekend our nation celebrates Labor Day. One of Martin Luther's contributions to Christian thought was to place an emphasis on vocation. Many times we think of vocation simply in terms of what we do for a living. However, for the Christian vocation can mean so much more. Truthfully, any role God calls us to can be considered our vocation, and, we can fulfill many vocations at one time. Your vocation may be server at a restaurant, as well as parent to your children. In each role we are given an opportunity to love and serve God – as a server by showing kindness to even the surliest of restaurant patrons; as a parent by teaching our children about God's love for them. As you celebrate the holy work God has called you to, remember that that work extends to every aspect of your life.

REMINDER

Sunday, September 8: Pet Blessing & Picnic.

Don't forget to sign up for potluck items.

Help is also needed to set-up and clean-up. Sign up on the "picnic" board in the gathering area today.

You will have ample time to take "handsome hippo" and "sneaky snake" as well as other pets home after the service and before the picnic.

Welcome to Christus!

If you're new, a few words about the worship service may be helpful:

1. Relax! You cannot make a "mistake" in worship.
2. Don't hesitate to ask someone for help or direction. Christ is made up of a friendly bunch of folks.
3. Take some time to just observe. Worship is a great drama of word, song, and action. We stand up, sit down, and move around as a way to show that our whole selves are involved in worship.
4. When we say communion is open to all, we actually mean that. This is Christ's table, not our table, and YOU are welcome here. If you don't feel comfortable participating in the meal, please know that we are still honored by your presence here today.
5. The whole service, songs included, will be projected on the screen. A printed service outline is available on the table just outside the sanctuary.

A few other notes:

Nursery care is available for infants through kindergarten, 8:50 a.m. until after the service.

Please plan to stay for refreshments and fellowship following worship.

Christus is equipped with hearing-assistance devices. If you would like a device, please see an usher.

If you are interested in learning more about Christ, please fill out a visitor information card, found in your pew, and put it in the offering basket. Also, stop by the Welcome Desk, located by the front door, to pick up a welcome bag.

God bless you!
